easy to get it in their own village communities where they state it before their relations, elders and neighbours.

Minute of Munro of 1834 mentions "clear and prompt in its decision". — and helped to avoid delay. The chief weakness of the Panchayat perhaps due to the absence of sufficient power to carry on the preliminaries to a judicial Proceedings. From the beginning there was a feeling among the East Indians against the institution of panchayats and its usefulness in the determination of purely local questions relating to caste and grievance matters was recognised.

In the ryotwari districts there were constantly attendance of the collectors and magistrates. Generally 10 to 12,000 people used to choose collector Generally nominates one of the leading agl inhabitants known to be a person of good sense and impartial. agreeable Most of the cases relating to the following subjects at Diwani Adalat at district level were religion, marriage, Peculiar customs of places, hereditary estate to maintain their army etc..

The year 1831 and 1861 was remarkable to revive of the charters of demands - and schemes were taken launched by the Indian National Congress towards Indian national movement.

Karnataka is not least to show steps in the field of its struggle for freedom. for air-- towards responsible govt. The Govt. took of 1935 its blessing indeed to get certain Concessions to Indians in the name for constitutional development. Thus the Code of Manu, through king with. the village is of a very direct kind being kept in touch with the affairs of mankind to several dynasties and kingdoms and passed on upon town the role of their subjects what it remains to us, is This! - and learn it all upon to deal with it, in its name it to maintain ... Jaise Hind rights (~~few~~ Hucks) division of Property, maintenance, the intricate accounts, damage for personal injuries ~~Data~~ Whatever nature — or boundary disputes etc.

Chief Land grievances of the ~~Estate~~ district referred to by Panchayat was dealt.

The establishment of civil courts and Circuit courts lead to the decline in the influence of Panchayats. The Act of 1889 ~~Law of~~ laid down civil judicial powers ~~of~~ Henry Maine ~~co-operates~~ remarks that at the district level in this State was nothing but an assembly of elders courts Perhaps roughly corresponds to Teutonic assembly.

When time passed on the kings court or the Royal durbar became the seat of justice in the matters of judgement. This was legally due to the decentralization of British system in India under the viceroy of Governor General in Council. The Board of Directors of East India Company was ~~the~~ various powers and director the Princely States in India.

The Princely State was ~~from~~ bound to pay the revenue collections to the Presidency ~~State~~ Govt of India